

SPRING 2017
LIR

TOUR DE FRANCE
MARCH 10TH

QUINEBAUG VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

LiR is for adults who enjoy learning in a stimulating and social environment. To join us at LiR, pay the annual membership fee of $20 covering September 2016—June 2017, and sign up for those courses of interest to you. New members are welcome throughout the year. There is an additional charge of $7 for each of the multi-session courses to help cover our expenses. Single-session presentations are free to registered members, as are the socials we hold each year. Visit our website at www.qvcc.edu/lir for newsletters, updates, and items of interest.

LOCAL HISTORY I (3 Sessions)

Roseland Cottage and the Bowen Family — March 6

This home is a landmark example of Gothic Revival architecture, and a fitting summer escape for wealthy businessman Henry Bowen, his wife Lucy Tappan, and their growing family. Learn about the unique charms and stories of the fabled Pink House on Woodstock Hill.

Presenter: Laurie Masciandoro is Historic New England's site manager at Roseland Cottage. She holds a Master's Degree in American History from the University of Connecticut. Her thesis, Disdaining the Republic: William Wetmore Story, Expatriate Aristocrat, reflects her primary interest in ante-bellum history, especially the 19th century expatriate artists' community in Rome, Italy.

The New England "Swamp Yankee" — March 20

Swamp Yankee, a colloquial term, dating back to 1776 (300+ years), is used to describe a stubborn, unrefined and independent New Englander. Is it a badge of honor or a birth right? Learn the origin of the term, and how its roots began right here in the quiet northeast corner of Connecticut. A surprising real story!

Presenter: Joe Lindley is the recipient of the DAR's Historic Preservation Medal and the vice president of the Thompson Historical Society. He has penned several books about local matters. He has a B.S. and an M.A. in Education and lives in Thompson, CT with his wife Sue.

Wyndham Land Trust: Protecting the Countryside — March 27

There are benefits from saving land for posterity; learn how land trusts support conservation. Some spectacularly scenic wild-life preserves are being acquired by the Wyndham Land Trust to add to their collection of over 2,000 acres in Connecticut's Quiet Corner. The many illustrations of their preserves will include some bird's eye views.

Presenter: Ron Tillen currently serves on the Thompson Wetland Commission, Thompson Conservation Commission and is on the board of the Wyndham Land Trust. Ron, who likes history and science, is a presenter of many well received programs for LiR .

THE WORLD'S GREATEST CHURCHES (4 Sessions)

Thursdays, 10–12 • Auditorium
March 9, 16, 23, 30

This Great Courses presentation will examine what churches represent and give testimony to all over the world. We will learn about the people and communities that built them. See a view of how the building expresses the faith, values, culture, the desires and dreams for those for whom they were built.

SESSION 1 — The Cathedral of Monreale, Chartres Cathedral, Winchester Cathedral

SESSION 2 — The Cathedral of Siena, St. Peter's Basilica, The Wieskirche in Bavaria

SESSION 3 — La Compania and Las Lajas Sanctuary, Guadalupe and the Cathedral of Mexico City, Four Great American Churches

SESSION 4 — La Sagrada Familia, Iceland's Hallgrímskirkja, Two Churches in Seoul, Korea

Presenter: Clare Despathy is a retired teacher (Home Ec; currently called Consumer and Family Science) and an active Program Committee member. She obtained this series for personal learning goals and liked it so much she offered to share with LiR members.

TRAVEL I (3 Sessions)

Fridays, 10:30–12 • Auditorium

Tour de France — March 10

Totally biased personal observations on French roads, wine, food, dogs, cheese, bread, flowers and history based on a 2,500 mile romp around of one of the most interesting countries in Europe. We will throw in some odd side trips and some idiosyncratic video clips — possibly even our version of “Sur Le Pont D’Avignon”.

Presenters: Ron and Gwyneth Tillen — Presentation to be attempted jointly by this pair of veteran LiR addicts, whose 58 years of marriage may be at risk as a result. Ron retired and wanted to study history but Gwyneth put him to work with LiR and they have been busy ever since.

Romania — March 17

This little known country will be seen through the eyes of a Woodstock Academy student who spent his senior year at the Tamasi Aron Gymnasium in Romania. What is it like to live with local families immersed in their Transylvanian culture? Learn about ethnic relations in Romania, and travel throughout the country.

Presenter: William French, from Woodstock, is currently a freshman at Ohio Wesleyan University, and a history and German major. Excited by his adventure abroad, he is researching Romanian history. Will's interests include numismatics, world culture, history and foreign language. After college he hopes to serve in the U.S. Army.

Nepal — March 24

Visit Nepal after the earthquake. Travel from Chitwan National Park, through the palaces and temples of Kathmandu to the Himalayas. Trek through the Annapurna Sanctuary and see the Himalayas at 14,000 feet at the Annapurna Base Camp. Join Philippa Paquette as she shares the photos and stories from her recent adventure.

Presenter: Philippa Paquette is a poet, world-traveler and sometime school psychologist. Her prior LiR talks dealt with Kilimanjaro, the Galapagos, Guatemala and Ecuador.

LOCAL HISTORY II (3 Sessions)

Fridays, 1–2:30 • Auditorium

Death and Burial Customs — March 17

Learn about early New England practices and superstitions from deathbed to burial. Experience a mock funeral and an illustrated talk examining causes of death, preparation of the corpse, wakes, mourning customs and gifts, burial, burying grounds and gravestones. Discover the concerns with grave robbing, body snatching and being buried alive (otaphophobia).

Presenter: Bev York has been working as a museum director for over 20 years. She is currently the site administrator for the Nathan Hale Homestead in Coventry, with the Willimantic Textile Museum and a history professor at QVCC. She is a lively and entertaining presenter.

The Life and Legacy of Prudence Crandall — March 24

Our Connecticut hero's story still inspires. This presentation will not only describe the events surrounding what took place in Canterbury in the early 1830s, but will also show how this piece of our nation's history served to inspire an up-and-coming local author and illustrator in writing her first book.

Co-Presenters: Kaz Koslowski has been the curator at the Prudence Crandall Museum in Canterbury since 1983, including all aspects of the museum site administration. The Prudence Crandall Museum, a national historic landmark, was purchased by the state of Connecticut in 1969; it is administered by the State Historic Preservation Office of the Department of Economic and Community Development. Kendall Smith is an author/illustrator/educator who wrote Among the Lilies: The Story of a Student Attending Prudence Crandall's School for African-American Girls.

Travel Our National Scenic Byway (RT 169) — March 31

Travel this Connecticut Scenic Highway — together with those who just revised formal goals for protection of this local asset. See what makes the Byway noteworthy, a destination for people of many interests. Right here in our backyards, oops, front yards, are nature, agriculture, ethnicity, history and just plain fun. Bring your own opinions, too!

Presenter: Dottie Durst filmed the story of RT 169 with narration by NECCOG staff, to demonstrate how important the Byway is to our region. She is an intern at Charter Cable, volunteers in several capacities and has served on the Planning and Zoning Commission for over 10 years. She and her husband are Woodstock residents.

KITCHEN & PERSONAL CARE SAFETY (2 Sessions)

Thursdays, 1–2:30 • E187
April 6 & 13

Chemicals are in your pantries, cellars, closets, laundry, and medicine cabinets. Eliminate fear by knowing the facts. Each session will feature a hands-on activity involving real chemistry and testing of products to learn more about them. Articles dealing with chemicals that are of current concern in society will be available (energy drinks, sugar, and opioids).

SESSION 1 — We will look at the products we use for cleaning, cooking, gardening, and general household use.

SESSION 2 — We will look at the products we use for personal hygiene, skin care, and appearance. Participants will begin with a quick survey to become aware of just how many "chemicals" we use in our daily lives.

Presenter: Mary Christian Madden has been an educator for 45 plus years with an endless list of accomplishments. She was well received having presented before at LiR. She teaches a chemistry class here at QVCC.

HEALTH (4 Sessions)

Wednesdays, 10:30–12 • Auditorium

Note day/time change on 4/20

Cancer: A General Overview — April 5

We will be reviewing the past, present, and future of the understanding of cancer biology and treatments. We will discuss new and exciting ways to better screen, diagnose, and treat cancer.

Presenter: Jeff Gordon, M.D. is a Board Certified Hematology-Oncology physician who cares for adults who have blood disorders or cancers. He works at Hartford Healthcare Oncology in Waterford, CT. Jeff is the president of the CT State Medical Society. He serves in many community volunteer/leadership roles, including being a member of Woodstock's Planning and Zoning Commission since 2007. Jeff and his family live in Woodstock.

Understanding the Benefits of Acupuncture — April 12

Acupuncture has been effectively used for the treatment of back pain, headaches, migraines, and sports injuries. However, acupuncture provides more than pain relief. It is helpful in treating anxiety, insomnia, digestive problems, menstrual problems, weight control, infertility and much more. Join us for this informative health and wellness program.

Presenter: Gabriel Kesselman has been in private practice since 2008 at Quiet Corner Acupuncture of Putnam, is a licensed Acupuncturist with the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM), as well as within the states of Connecticut and California. He is a graduate of the prestigious Five Branches University in Santa Cruz, California.

Hot Topics in Senior Health — April 19

A discussion on common senior health-related topics and trends and innovations in disease management and treatment.

Presenter: Jennifer Ormerod has a PhD in Physiology and Neuroscience, a BS in pre-med, and her MS in Physiology. Many years were spent in medical research and she is now a medical scientist in Immunology. Jennifer is a dynamic presenter with a good sense of humor.

Lyme Disease Prevention — NOTE Thursday, April 20, 1–2:30 PM

Lyme disease is transmitted to humans through the bite of infected blacklegged ticks and is the most commonly reported vectorborne illness in the United States. Learn about Lyme disease, tick behavior, and prevention strategies ranging from personal protection to deer-resistant plantings to keep white-tailed deer and their traveling companions (blacklegged ticks) off your property.

Presenter: Linda Colangelo is the education and communications coordinator for NDDH, which prevents illness, promotes wellness, and protects the health of over 85,000 residents in 12 northeast CT towns.

DEVELOPMENT OF OPERA (3 Sessions)

Tuesdays, 1:00–? • Auditorium
April 11, 18, 25

SESSION 2 — Full length DVD of the Magic Flute by Mozart

SESSION 3 — Full length DVD of Verdi's La Traviata

Presenter: Joseph Gibbons has been sharing his love and knowledge of opera with LiR for over 14 years. He is a retired Air Force man and bon vivant.

WEIMAR CINEMA (3 sessions)

Thursdays, 10–12 • Auditorium

April 13, 20, 27

This series highlights the works of German film actor Conrad Veidt (1893-1943). Best known for his role as Major Strasser in the film classic Casablanca (1942) opposite Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman, Veidt appeared in 99 other films in Germany, Great Britain and the United States. Showings:

- The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari (1920/Silent)
- Land without Women (1929/Germany's first sound movie)
- Casablanca (1942)

Presenter: Steve Rechner has a great appreciation for the films of the Weimar Era—one of the most creative in Germany between the wars until Hitler rose to power. He is a frequent LiR presenter. Included is Veidt's most popular American film.

HISTORY (3 sessions)

Mondays, 10:30–12 • Auditorium

The Impeachment of President Andrew Johnson: 1868 — April 17

Tension between the executive and legislative branches was high since Johnson's ascension to the White House upon the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. The Constitution survived the crisis; there is much to learn from the way in which events played out from this, the first impeachment of an incumbent President since creation of the office in 1789.

Presenter: Dr. Tom Army is adjunct professor of history at QVCC and former headmaster of Rectory School. Tom helped form and lead the Northeastern Connecticut Civil War Round Table. He authored Engineering Victory: How Technology Won the Civil War. Tom's presentations for LiR are very well received.

They Called Her Reckless (A Korean War Horse)

— April 24

In 1955, a U.S. Marine Platoon acquired a small Korean pony to haul ammunition up the steep hills to the front lines. They got a real-life warhorse, the courageous and indomitable Reckless, who, during the Korean War, saved lives, raising spirits, and winning the love and respect of all who knew her.

Presenter: Janet Barrett has loved and been fascinated by horses all her life. For 25 years, she almost obsessively rode, trained and cared for them — experiences that gave her a particular appreciation for the famed warhorse, Reckless. She has written for print and broadcast media, and in the public relations field.

British Royal History: The Children of Charles I — May 1

It is not always easy being a royal child...The lives of the six children of British King Charles (Stuart) and his Queen, Henrietta Maria of France (Bourbon), are decidedly unique and include: kingship(s), exile, imprisonment, diplomacy, sanctuary and death at early ages. The Tudors had nothing on the Stuarts!

Presenter: Janet M. Avery is a native of Connecticut (Windham, Mansfield). She has been fascinated with British history — particularly the monarchy — since her first trip to England at age 15. Janet is a Ricardian — a member of the Richard III Society.

TRAVEL II (3 sessions)

Fridays, 10:30–12 • Auditorium

Note skip in dates

Basketball In Tibet: An Unexpected Journey — April 7

Mike and Bev Cristina were honored to travel with the MIT alumnae basketball team to a remote corner of the Tibetan Plateau where Mike participated in exhibition games against Tibetan Nomad Teams. Ritoma is home to the regional basketball tournament for Nomads and Monks, and also home to Norlha Textiles which provides jobs for many Nomadic herders as an alternative to their harsh way of life.

Presenters: Mike and Bev Christina share the hobby of taking groups on photographic safaris to Tanzania, East Africa; An interesting side of people long engaged in the real estate profession. Mike Cristina is an active member of the Wyndham Land Trust.

Savannah/Charleston: Two Southern Cities — April 28

We will explore the cities of Charleston, SC and Savannah, GA. Architecture, history, culture and, of course, food are all experienced along with a few trips into the low country and to the coast.

Presenters: Bill and Lois Brower are in the process of visiting all 50 states. They have been LiR members for 10 years and enjoy presenting programs and serving on LiR committees. Through this work, they have made many good friends in their Quiet Corner retirement home.

Cambodia and Vietnam in 2017 — May 5

Remember the scenes of the Vietnam War, of burning jungles and craters in the landscape? See Cambodia and Vietnam today, 40 years later — the ancient beauty of Angkor Wat, one of the Seven Wonders of the World, to Halong Bay, a UNESCO Heritage site and a "New Seven Wonders of the World."

Presenter: Barbara Laliberte, LiR's vice president, lives in Danielson and has been a LiR member for five years. She retired from United Natural Foods in 2011, serves on a LiR committee, and is involved in many projects, hobbies, as well as global travel.

CONVERSATIONAL GERMAN (4 sessions)

Mondays, 1–2:30 • W102
March 13, 20, 27, April 3

Lucky LiRers will have an opportunity to get a taste of the German language. No promise that this program will turn you into a linguistic scholar, but hopefully you'll come away saying a bit more than "Hello" and "Goodbye".

Presenter: Steve Rechner is a frequent LiR presenter, especially of German films from the classic Weimar Era, one of the most creative, until Hitler rose to power. People asked for a German class and Steve stepped up; we do have fun!

BEGINNING WRITING (4 sessions)

Tuesdays, 10:30–12 • A131
March 28, April 4, 11, 18

Learn how to create a setting, develop a character, and how to write dialog. This is writing on a basic level. Get your thoughts on paper(or on your computer screen)!

LGBTQ: Building a Bridge through Transgender Awareness

Monday, March 13, 10:30–12 • Auditorium

Thirteen years after being born and raised a boy, Renee knew she was not a boy, but a girl. Out of love and respect for her parents, she waited 44 years to address this. Learn terminology, definitions of LGBTQIA+ people, and about lifelong challenges. Important strides have been made, but there is still a long way to go.

Presenters: Renee Benoit was instrumental in getting a bill passed to allow needed medical coverage for Transgenders. She hosted a public access live call-in show and has created and now leads a local LGBTQIA+ support group. She is a paralegal, and is active in the community. Attorney Alix Simonetti will speak about discrimination and bullying.

ENGAGING AGING

Thursday, March 23, 1–2:30 • Auditorium

The Northeast District Department of Health (NDDH) wants to hear from you (again, even) about the experience of aging — no matter your age! Explore the essence of senescence (aging) in a candid discussion about life stages and healthy choices we can make to approach the aging process with grace, dignity, and acceptance.

Presenter: Linda J. Colangelo is the education and communications coordinator for NDDH, which prevents illness, promotes wellness, and protects the health of over 85,000 residents in 12 northeast CT towns.

ORGANIZING

Be Organized, Save Time!

Tuesday, March 28, 1–2:30 • Auditorium

Darlene has been exposed to and uses many skills to live her motto. She is delighted to share ideas and help us all have more time to enjoy. “Did I hear downsize?”

Presenter: Darlene Stubbe is retired from a varied career in law and business offices including being a partner/owner for ten years in a manufacturing enterprise (over 300 employees). She has been a concierge with the Marriott Hotel in Newport, RI, a tour director of the Breakers Mansion and a nanny for three little boys.

FINANCIAL RETIREMENT JOURNEY

Thursday, April 6, 10:30–12 • Auditorium

Join us to examine these milestones in your financial plan:

- Considerations while in retirement
- Retirement Income planning and Income Sources
- Living longer and the implications to your portfolio
- Estate planning — a good idea or not?

Presenter: James Zahansky has developed strong skill sets in strategy, leadership, and interpersonal dynamics throughout his career and regards one’s character as their defining quality. As a managing partner at Weiss & Hale Financial since 2014, Jim has utilized his training to assist clients in developing strategies and solutions to meet their financial goals.

PROBATE/ELDER LAW

The New Power of Attorney Statutes

Monday, April 17, 1–2:30 • Auditorium

The 2016 changes in Connecticut's Power of Attorney Act include enhanced disclosures and authorizations — all confusing. We'll review the changes and the reasoning behind the new requirements, as well as Health Care Agent and Health Care Power of Attorney designations, Advanced Directives, and a HIPPA Authorization which is becoming a necessary document in your Estate Planning package.

Presenter: Gail Rooke Norman is an Elder Law Attorney with offices in Danielson and Griswold. She has concentrated in Probate Law, Estate Planning, and Elder Law for 24 years; and she volunteers at several municipal and civic organizations, including service as a director on the QVCC Foundation Board.
