

Join LiR and you can...

- Enjoy interactive, informal presentations
- Make new friends or renew acquaintances
- Share learning experiences
- Benefit from presentations by college instructors, local townspeople who are experts in their fields, and others like yourself: life-long learners and travelers
- Share your expertise as a presenter

QVCC benefits for LiR members

LiR members ARE students at QVCC

- Your student ID allows access to full library services, including videos, computers, & staff
- WIFI/internet is throughout the building
- “Seniors” are offered seats, when available, for full-semester college courses at no charge
- The cafeteria provides a sunny, comfortable setting to get to know other life-long learners
- The bookstore offers student prices on all items including software
- Many members plan time for the Art Gallery And LiR itself
- We are celebrating our 25th anniversary;
- Know you’ve helped a local student through the LiR scholarship fund
- Join a LiR committee and contribute to our long-term success

A mind is a terrible thing to waste.

LiR Members select the program categories that interest them most:

- Nature/Science
- History (Regional/US/World) Travel
- Local Interest/Local History
- Health/Fitness/Spirituality Writing/Bridge/Language
- And a variety of unique, topical presentations and presenters

Most programs are held in the auditorium at QVCC, an adult-friendly environment with outstanding technology and sound systems, full-sized screen and comfortable seating.

Across the hall is the college cafeteria, offering a variety of menu items at reasonable college-student prices. LiR members enjoy gathering there before or after presentations.

Membership is open to all.

Membership Details...

Yearly membership runs from September 1 through August 31.

Membership is a prerequisite for enrolling in a LiR program series or for a Field trip.

Included free to Members: Socials, Open Houses, full college-student privileges*, and single-session programs.

- Annual membership (fall, winter and spring semesters) $20
- Multi-session programs $7
- Single-session programs Free
- Trips are priced individually

SGA sponsored events are not available to LiR members as members do not pay college service fees.*

It is so easy to join!

How to obtain Membership:

- Attend our free Open Houses in August or Late Winter. Hear all about the semester's presenters. Sign up right there.
- Call 860-932-4112 to join LiR and to register for programs.
- The LiR website has the current Program as well as the membership/registration form. Go to qvcc.edu/lir
- Hint, Hint: A gift membership is a welcome treat....a thoughtful and useful retirement, birthday or gift for any occasion.

Turn a can't into a can and a dream into a plan.

742 Upper Maple St. • Danielson, CT

www.qvcc.edu/lir

LiR: Add to what you already knew...
Or challenge your brain
with something new.

Join LiR: You are never too old to learn.

LiR provides the means to meet the wide range of interests for adults who want to explore new topics. The programs are chosen to stimulate the mind and provide a relaxed social environment where our members meet others who want to learn just a little more than they already know.

LiR: For Lifelong Learning

LiR is an independent, self-governing membership organization, formed in 1994 with 120 original Charter members. Today, with membership of about 400, 14 towns are represented from 3 states. 25 years and still growing!

@ Quinebaug Valley Community College