

Quinebaug Valley Community College
Student Government Association
Constitution 2018-2019

Updated 2/6/19

Preamble: We, the students of Quinebaug Valley Community College, establish this constitution as a guideline for the Student Government Association (SGA) in an effort to promote and secure the general well-being and rights of our fellow students.

ARTICLE I: PURPOSE

- A. To provide an effective means of communication between the students and other College constituencies.
- B. To provide leadership and coordination for a well-balanced co-curricular student activities enrichment program.
- C. To oversee the distribution and expenditure of the Student Activities Account pursuant to established SGA, College and State regulations.
- D. To act as a voice to inform the public about the needs of Community College students.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP AND ELECTIONS

- A. Any full or part-time student with a GPA of at least 2.0 is eligible for election by the student body to a Student Government Office. Officers must maintain good academic standing for the length of their terms.
- B. A member of the QVCC faculty or staff shall be appointed by the QVCC Dean to serve as the Advisor to the SGA.
- C. Elections for the Student Government Association Executive Board will occur in either October of the current academic year, or in April for the following academic year.
- D. In the case that a Student Government Association Office(s) is vacant after the fall semester, a mid-year election will occur in February to fill the position(s).
- E. In order for a student's name to be placed on the ballot, he/she must submit to the Advisor to the SGA, a statement citing reasons for seeking office and a petition of 25 student signatures, two weeks prior to the election. Forms will be available outside the Student Services Office at the Danielson campus. In addition, the Student Government Association Advisor and a current Student Government Association Officer must interview all applicants.
- F. Students receiving the highest number of affirmative votes will be elected to office in the Student Government Association.
- G. Elections will be organized and conducted by the Advisor to the SGA and his/her designees. A person seeking election to an SGA office may not assist in the election process.
- H. The Advisor to the SGA may appoint a QVCC student to any vacant officer's position if no students seek candidacy for said position during regularly scheduled elections.

ARTICLE IV: MEETINGS

- A. Shall be held once every two weeks when classes are in session and at the convenience of the officers' schedules, and be open to the College Community.
- B. Shall be held only when minimally a quorum of the executive membership is present. A quorum shall consist of one more than $\frac{1}{2}$ of the membership of the Executive Board..
- C. If no quorum exists and an emergency condition prevails, an expanded Executive Board meeting may be called consisting of the officers and members present. This body may conduct business.
- D. Special meetings may be scheduled if deemed necessary by the Executive Board and provided that the SGA members were notified at least 24 hours in advance by a designated member.
- E. Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the constitution of this organization and Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised Edition. However, the President has the prerogative to conduct informal meetings.

ARTICLE V: IMPEACHMENT

- A. Impeachment proceedings shall be initiated against officers, SGA representatives to the foundation or the SAC, or members if there is flagrant violation of the SGA Constitution.
- B. Impeachment shall require a written petition signed by at least $\frac{1}{2}$ of the entire voting membership present at a regularly scheduled SGA meeting.
- C. This petition shall be submitted to the President or Vice President at a regularly scheduled meeting and necessitate action within two weeks.
- D. The officer or member facing impeachment must:
 1. Be given a written statement of the charge(s).
 2. Be allowed one week after the written statement is given to prepare his/her case.
 3. Be allowed reasonable time on the floor of the meeting to present his/her case.
- E. Removal from office or membership must be supported by a two-thirds majority of the entire voting membership present at a regularly scheduled SGA meeting in which prior notice has been given.

ARTICLE VI: RATIFICATION AND AMENDMENTS

- A. This constitution shall be introduced at the beginning of each semester.
- B. Amendments may be proposed by a student, faculty member, or administrator and ratified by a two-thirds vote of the voting membership. Proposed amendments must be presented to the Student Government at one regularly scheduled meeting, and will be voted on at the next scheduled meeting.
- C. This constitution shall be ratified by a majority vote of the Student Government Association membership present at a meeting in which at least 24 hours' notice has been given.

ARTICLE VII: BY-LAWS

- A. A member who has attended at least two meetings and is unable to attend a meeting may authorize a proxy vote on any matter except impeachment by delegating his/her membership in the following manner in writing:
“I name do hereby authorize name to vote on my behalf on all items on the agenda for the SGA meeting to be held on date . Signed.” The proxy must be a QVCC student.
- B. Separate notification of impeachment proceedings must be included with minutes of the meeting at which impeachment proceedings were initiated.
- C. No expenditure of SGA funds shall be made without prior approval by the Executive Board.
- D. The SGA shall not entertain funding requests submitted retroactive to any event or expenditure unless this funding request comes from the faculty/staff advisor(s) for expenditures outside of the semester. If expenditures outside of the semester occur the faculty/staff advisor(s) will notify SGA officers via text and email in a good faith effort to inform.
- E. The SGA Advisor shall handle any payment of bills already approved by the Executive Board that may occur between the end of one school semester and the first day of the next new school semester.

ARTICLE VIII: STANDING COMMITTEE

A. WILLIMANTIC STANDING COMMITTEE

- 1. To develop a standing committee of the SGA that will provide a strong connection between the QVCC Danielson campus and the Willimantic Center.
- 2. Identify ways in which student activities can be coordinated between campuses to ensure that all students are being served.
